

COGHSTA SCOOPED THE BEST EMERGING WOMAN AND YOUTH CONTRACTORS AWARDS

Team CoGHSTA during the Govan Mbeki Awards, supporting Rampete Rangata (Ramkol Construction and Projects) who took home the Best Emerging Youth Contractor Award.

The Limpopo Department of Co-operative Governance, Human Settlements & Traditional Affairs (CoGHSTA) took home the Best Emerging Woman (Ixplore Construction) and Best Emerging Youth (Ramkol Construction and Projects) Contractors Awards. This announcement was made during the Govan Mbeki Awards that were held at Gallagher Convention Centre, Midrand, Gauteng on Thursday, 9 November 2017. The Awards which are held annually were named after the late stalwart, Govan Mbeki in 2006 based on the role he played in Human Settlements, partnering with key partners in order to further the cause of building a nation free of inequality. Rampete Rangata of Ramkol Construction and Projects took home the Best Emerging Youth Contractor and said he really did not expect to win but he sees the award as a motivation. Tanya Coetzer of Ixplore said she is humbled, thankful and it was such a big surprise. She also sees the award as a motivation to do more.

Speaking during the prestigious awards, Minister Lindiwe Sisulu said she is convinced that the recipients of the awards, are conscious that they are in the business to be part of an important army as an integral component of agents of change and using housing development as a catalyst. "All of us have a duty to ensure that the great divide between the rich and the poor that has exacerbated through human settlements would be a thing of the past".

Tanya Coetzer (Ixplore Construction) and Rampete Rangata (Ramkol Construction and Projects) took home the Best Emerging Woman and Youth Contractors during the Govan Mbeki Awards that were held at Gallagher Convention Centre, Midrand in Gauteng on Thursday, 09 November 2017.