Musina residents to table their needs and challenges during the Departmental Participation Programme.

As part of intensifying democracy and advancing consultation with communities, the MEC for CoGHSTA, Mr Basikopo Makamu will host a Public Participation event to be held on Friday, 06 November 2020 at New Community Hall, Nancefield, Musina Local Municipality at 08:00.

The event will serve as an opportunity for residents to interact with the MEC as representatives from different stakeholders. Public Participation Programmes afford residents a platform to raise their needs and challenges regarding service delivery.

For public knowledge, we request MEC to be interviewed during current affairs programmes.
