LIMPOPO RESORTS TO DIVINE INTERVENTION TO BRING SOCIAL COHESION TO THE MALAMULELE-VUWANI AND HLANGANANI COMMUNITIES

For immediate release

11th May 2016

Good day,

The Premier of Limpopo, Mr Stan Mathabatha accompanied by the MEC for CoGHSTA, Mme Makoma Makhurupetje will on Saturday, the 14th May 2016 attend a prayer session at Vuwani village, an initiative to bring calm to the troubled Vuwani-Malamulele and Hlanganani unrests.

This came as one of the solutions identified after Faith-Based organisations, Government, including other role-players, met to bring peace to the situation following the outcome of the court action on the establishment of the new municipality incorporating the areas of Vuwani, Malamulele and Hlanganani. The Inter-Ministerial Committee on the new municipality has been engaging various stakeholders since the outcome, with recent meetings scheduled at different levels from the 11th- the 13th May 2016. Prayer day is scheduled as follows:

Date : 14 May 2016

Time : 11h00

Venue: Christian Worship Centre - Mashau Village

The event is part of Government programme aimed at to promoting social cohesion for stability in Vhembe District.
