

CONSTRUCTION PROFESSIONALS ENLIGHTENED ON AFFILIATING WITH RELEVANT COUNCILS

Of high importance: All professional councils invited presented on the importance of registering with the relevant professional body.

On a quest to ensure that professionalism and accountability are carried out and maintained across all departmental projects, the Limpopo Department of Co-operative Governance, Human Settlements and Traditional Affairs (CoGHSTA) held a Professional Council Workshop and Exhibition on Friday, 06 April 2018.

The workshop and exhibition aimed at highlighting the importance of affiliating with relevant professional bodies was attended by Construction Project Managers and ISHS officials in the department.

During the workshop, HRCD's Deputy Director, Rosina Rabekane explained that the professional council workshop and exhibition will assist employees to access information about the importance and benefits of registering and belonging to a professional body while aligning the knowledge with their respective profession relevant to the department. 'This workshop and exhibition was the first of many to come and as HRCD, we are more than happy and thankful as not only the attendance by delegates was impressive but all the professional councils invited to present on the day came,' she said.

Presentations and exhibitions by different companies such as the Engineering Council of South Africa (ECSA), Council for the Built Environment (CBE), Vela Vuna Training (Pty) Ltd, The South African Council for the Project and Construction Management Professions (SACPCMP) and the South African Council for the Landscape, Architectural Profession (SACLAP) were done, while departmental stakeholders, Housing Development Agency (HDA) and the National Home Builders Registration Council (NHBC) were also present on the day.
