

The Chelele family now have a place to call home.

MEC COGHSTA AND THE FIRST LADY TRUST HONOR THE LATE FIRST LADY AT EISELEVEN VILLAGE.

MEC Makamu during the handover of three houses in Eiselele Village.

As part of Women's Month and a symbolic gesture to carry on the legacy of the late First Lady of the province, Mme Maggie Mathabatha, the Limpopo Department of Co-operative Governance, Human Settlements and Traditional Affairs (CoGHSTA) in collaboration with the First Lady Trust handed over three houses to deserving female beneficiaries at Eiselele Village, Botlokwa in the Molemole Local Municipality recently.

Before cutting the ribbon to the houses, MEC Makamu urged beneficiaries to take good care of their new homes. "We hope that in the years to come, we still find your houses intact," said the CoGHSTAMEC.

One of the beneficiaries, Mokgadi Chelele (42) could not contain her excitement as she was handed the keys to her brand-new house. "My husband and I together with our children lived in a one room house and could not even have visitors due to limited space. This house has given me and my family dignity," said the mother of three. Zorah Khan Developers which the Director is a woman donated furniture to the three households to make them more habitable and homely.

MEC Makamu handing Mokgadi Chelele keys to her brand-new house at Eiselele Village, Molemole Local Municipality.