

SENSATIONAL!

TRADITIONAL LEADERS ON A STRATEGIC SESSION

MEC Makamu witnesses as Chairperson of the House, Hosi Pheni Ngove signs a Memorandum of Understanding between the LHTL and National Heritage Council.

In full support: MEC Makamu during the LHTL Strategic Planning Session for 2022-2027 Term.

In support of the Limpopo House of Traditional Leaders (LHTL) and the role that Traditional Leaders play in uplifting rural communities, CoGHSTAMEC, Mr Basikopo Makamu attended the House's 2022-2027 Term Strategic Planning Session at Forever Resorts Warmbaths. Belabela.

From the 07-09 February 2023, members of the LHTL broke into commissions to engage in various sub-committees of the LHTL namely; Tradition, Culture and

Taking the lead: Chairperson of the LHTL, Hosi Pheni Ngove addressing members of the House during the 2022- 2027 Strategic Planning Session.

Customs; Rules and Constitutional Development; Social Development and Gender Equality; Planning and Cooperative Governance; Agriculture and Land; and Initiation School. Commissions not only identified key outcomes and activities during the session but further conducted a strengths, weaknesses, opportunities, and threats (SWOT) analysis of the outlined sub-committees. Addressing members of the House, MEC Makamu wished delegates well on their deliberations. "I would like to thank Deputy Chairperson of the House, Kgoshi Rammupudu during the LHTL Strategic Planning Session.

Traditional Leaders for making time and attend this strategic planning session. I am confident that the outcome of the session will be of greater good to communities in which you reign".

In conclusion, Chairperson of the House, Hosi Pheni Ngove signed a Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) between the House and stakeholders such as the Limpopo Department of Social Development, National Heritage Council to name a few.