The community of Ga Dikgale and surrounding villages descended in their numbers at Dikgale Royal Grounds to witness the handing over of the Dikgale Traditional Council Office. The handing over took place on Friday, 07 October 2022.

Speaking during the ceremony, the MEC for CoGHSTA, Mr Basikopo Makamu said: "We are here today to hand over this Office because we are a government that supports the institution of Traditional Leadership. Our government will always depend on your support in carrying out its mandate and obligations especially in rural communities where the majority of our people come from. The role that you play in rural communities can never be downplayed or overlooked. This is a community property, and it must be accessible to all stakeholders. We also call upon community members to look after this Offices as they will render much needed service"
