Putting Communities First: CoGHSTA Hosts Public Participation Forum.

CoGHSTA hosted a Provincial Public Participation Forum in Polokwane, bringing together Municipal Officials, Community Development Workers (CDWs), Public Participation Practitioners and key stakeholders to strengthen community engagement and promote meaningful public participation in local governance.
The Forum focused on reviewing public participation systems, improving access to information, and discussing the establishment of ward committees in the next term of local government. Through collaborative discussions, stakeholders identified practical solutions to deepen public participation and ensure that communities remain at the centre of local governance across Limpopo.

The Chief Director for Democratic Governance, CDP, and Disaster Management, Ms Mathudi Chuma.

The Director for Democratic Governance, Ms Masebati Bilankulu.

The Forum was attended by Municipal Officials, Community Development Workers (CDWs), Public Participation Practitioners and other key stakeholders.
