COMMUNITY BIDS FAREWELL TO A GREAT LEADER

Patriotic, Energetic, Great Leader and a Motivator. These are some of words speaker after speaker used to describe the late Kgoshi Patrick Raphahlelo (63) who was laid to rest at ga-Raphahlelo, Greater Letaba Municipality on Saturday, 25 November 2017.

Mourners also described him as a leader who led from the front and always fought for the wellbeing and development for his people.

The Chairperson of the Limpopo House of Traditional Leaders, Kgoshi Malesela Dikgale said the people of ga-Raphahlelo have lost a One of a Kind leader who always prioritized the needs of his community. Dikgale also urged the Royal Family to be united. He saluted the late Chief for his involvement in Community Structures.

Kgoshi Letsiri Phaahla who is the Chairperson of Contralesa in the Province, described the late Kgoshi as a leader who led by example and that his death has robbed the Community of ga-Raphahlelo, Limpopo and South Africa of a great leader.

The MEC for CoGHSTA, Mr Jerry Ndou said the late Kgoshi Raphahlelo was a leader of a special kind. He appealed to other traditional leaders to follow the admirable example set by Raphahlelo with regard to bringing development in their villages
