

MEC Makamu Meets Maake Royal Family to Foster Unity and Stability.

Polokwane – Limpopo MEC for Co-operative Governance, Human Settlements and Traditional Affairs (CoGHSTA), Mr Basikopo Makamu, met with members of the Maake Royal Family at the department's headquarters in Polokwane on Wednesday as part of ongoing efforts to strengthen traditional leadership and promote unity within royal institutions.

The meeting focused on matters affecting the Maake Royal Family and explored ways to enhance stability, cooperation, and effective traditional governance. Both parties engaged in constructive discussions aimed at finding common ground and addressing issues of mutual concern.

Speaking during the engagement, MEC Makamu reaffirmed government's commitment to supporting traditional institutions and ensuring that they continue to play a meaningful role in community development and social cohesion.

The meeting concluded with a shared commitment between the CoGHSTA leadership and the Maake Royal Family to work together towards lasting solutions that will strengthen the institution and deliver positive outcomes for the broader community.

The Department described the engagement as a significant step towards fostering unity, stability, and collaboration, in line with government's vision of building inclusive and responsive governance structures across Limpopo.
